

ARIZONA GAKUEN SCHOOL

Application Information

The Arizona Gakuen Japanese School is now accepting student applications. Parents interested in enrolling their children, may send the accompanying application form to the Arizona Gakuen School office.

PURPOSE OF ARIZONA GAKUEN SCHOOL

The school has two goals:

1. Arizona Gakuen School will ensure that the children of Japanese nationals temporarily located in Arizona can continue their education in Japanese language, math, science, and social studies. The school follows a regular Japanese school curriculum so that a child returning to Japan can make the return transition with ease.
2. The school provides an opportunity for English speaking children to learn the Japanese language and culture.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

KINDERGARTEN

The kindergarten is open to any child, regardless of Japanese ability. Children will experience Japanese through songs, games, and crafts. Students must be at least 4 years old.

COURSE A

This course, taught in Japanese, divides students into appropriate grade levels (1-9) and utilizes Japanese language textbooks, following guidelines set by the Japanese Ministry of Education. The morning program offers language and mathematics. The optional afternoon program, open to 3rd grade and above, offers science and social studies. Students must be under 18 years of age and be fluent in Japanese.

COURSE B

This course offers Japanese conversation, and the basics of writing and reading to non-Japanese speaking children. Students must be under 18 years of age.
